SALEM - Indiana State police in Sellersburg arrested a 28-year-old Salem man Sunday morning in connection with the slaying of another Salem man who was found dead in his apartment Saturday.

James H. Moore, was booked into Washington County Jail at 12:45 a.m. He is charged with the murder of Richard L. Huffines, 57, police said.

Huffines was found stabbed to death in his apartment early Saturday morning.

Moore is being held in the Washington County Jail without bond, Washington County police said.
